What do minor-league baseball, Quad Cities Advanced Toastmasters, and the World Champion of Public Speaking have in common?

Toastmasters Night At The Ballpark!

Pres Vasilev tried out his championship speech for the very first time at our 4th annual event last year. Our evaluation panelists gave him some great advice!

Come join us for this year's event! It begins right after TLI-West, held this year at the new Quad Cities campus of Western Illinois University. At 4 PM, you'll have a chance to help district champions from Iowa, Illinois, and Wisconsin polish their championship-round speeches. At 5 PM, you'll enjoy a delicious barbecue buffet and networking with Toastmasters from around the Midwest. At 6 PM, the game begins—and you'll have the best seats in the house! Sit outside on the balcony or watch from the air-conditioned comfort of the exclusive Skydeck. Order your tickets now and pick them up at 3:30 inside the Suites entrance at Modern Woodmen Park, 209 S. Gaines St, Davenport, IA.
